SILHOUETTES OF SEVENTY-FOUR

In the course of a lifetime, we encounter various facets of life. For each new experience we keep in mind memories. This school year holds many such remembrances for all concerned. Throughout the year, we've come face to face with joys, sadness, pride, work, and numerous other things. Here are but a few of these "Silhouettes of Seventy-four".

LaVega basketball players watch helplessly as a Big Red Cager sinks another basket.

The "Tiger Dolls" perform "Patton" at one of the basketball games.

Spirit soars as Big Red breaks through the traditional big sign which is drawn up by band members each week.

Janis Coufal assists Donna Sutter as she waits patiently to have her senior portrait taken.

Tigo, Leticia Dominquez, is seen with band members in preparing for a bus trip to one of the football games.

PRIDE . . .

Pride is a big thing at BHS. A winning football team, a first class band, along with other accomplishments of various clubs and individual students rates pride high on the list of things shared by students.

The pride of Belton traveled to California to participate in the Tournament of Roses Parade. The Marching 100 was the official Texas representative in the parade.

A decorated car displays the sentiments of the entire student body.

A SILHOUETTE OF ACCOMPLISHMENT

Lisa Kennedy, Jennifer Bay, Cheryl Lawson, and Janet Kerley represented Belton at Girls State.

Joe Price, Harold Whitis, Grant Critchfield, and John Cox were Belton's representatives at Boys State.

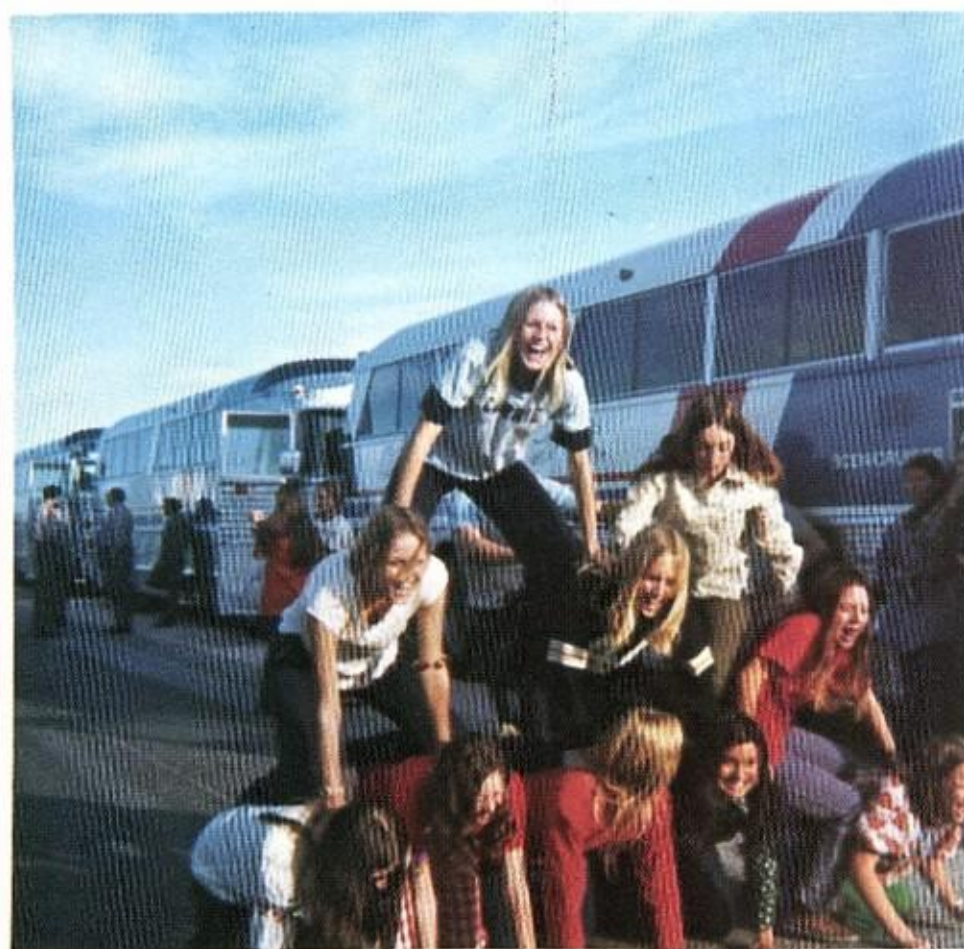

Representatives to Boys and Girls State are chosen on the basis of grades, conduct, leadership, and various other qualities of good character. They participate in learning of the state government by holding elections among themselves and carrying on various duties of government.

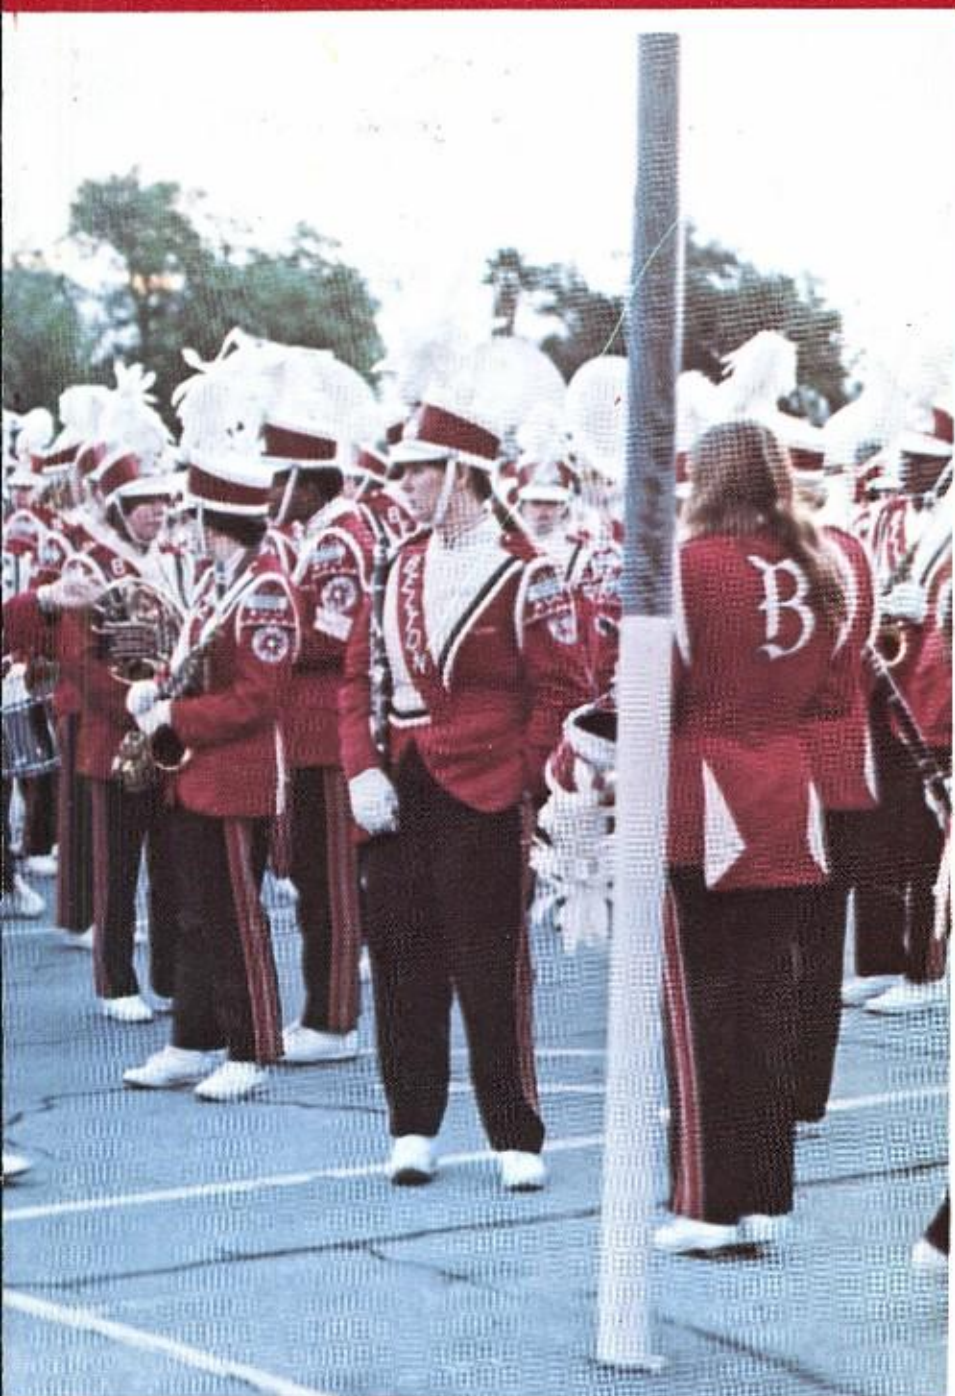

A SILHOUETTE OF ROSES

Band members take advantage of a rest stop on the way to California.

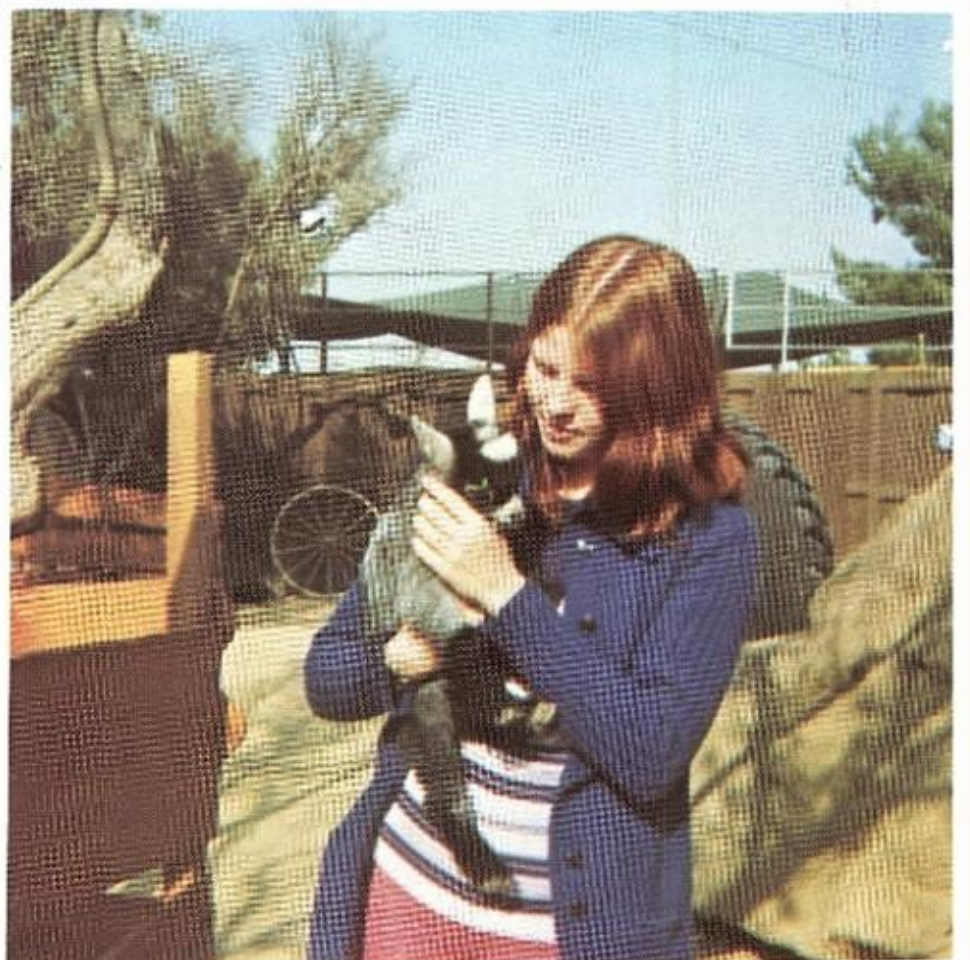

Several twirlers huddle together in the early morning cold while they wait with the rest of the band for the beginning of the parade.

The Marching 100 lines up for the official start of the Rose Parade.

Peggy Connally fondles one of the animals at the Universal Studio's zoo which the band visited while on the trip.

Band members pose with friend at Disneyland, another stop on the journey.

Diana Dulany is confronted with a lifelike Frankenstein at Universal studios.

SPIRIT . . .

A student of BHS generally shares one thing with all his fellow students—the enthusiasm and spirit displayed at sports events. Belton has been well known for its tremendous school spirit and this year the town as well as the student body backed Big Red through Quarter Finals.

Big Red cheerleaders lead the team onto the field at the beginning of another game.

On the sidelines, the cheerleaders encourage fans in cheering on Big Red.

Kathy Meredith displays her enthusiasm and skill at one of the pep rallies.

... A SILHOUETTE OF ENTHUSIASM

The "Tiger Dolls" contribute spirit in the stands at the Homecoming game.

The Marching 100 takes the field for a victory march after the Big Red Machine plows over another opponent.

HOMECOMING . . .

Homecoming at BHS is a festive occasion which includes the selling of "mums", the crowning of a Queen, and the added excitement of the bonfire. The day before Homecoming, students are excused from classes early and spend the remaining part of the day gathering wood. That night, the fire is lit and a pep rally accompanies the proceedings. All of these are traditions at BHS.

Miss Susan Kelton was crowned Homecoming Queen in pre-game ceremonies at the Belton-Gatesville game.

Calvin Tyner joins in with other students in adding wood to the bonfire.

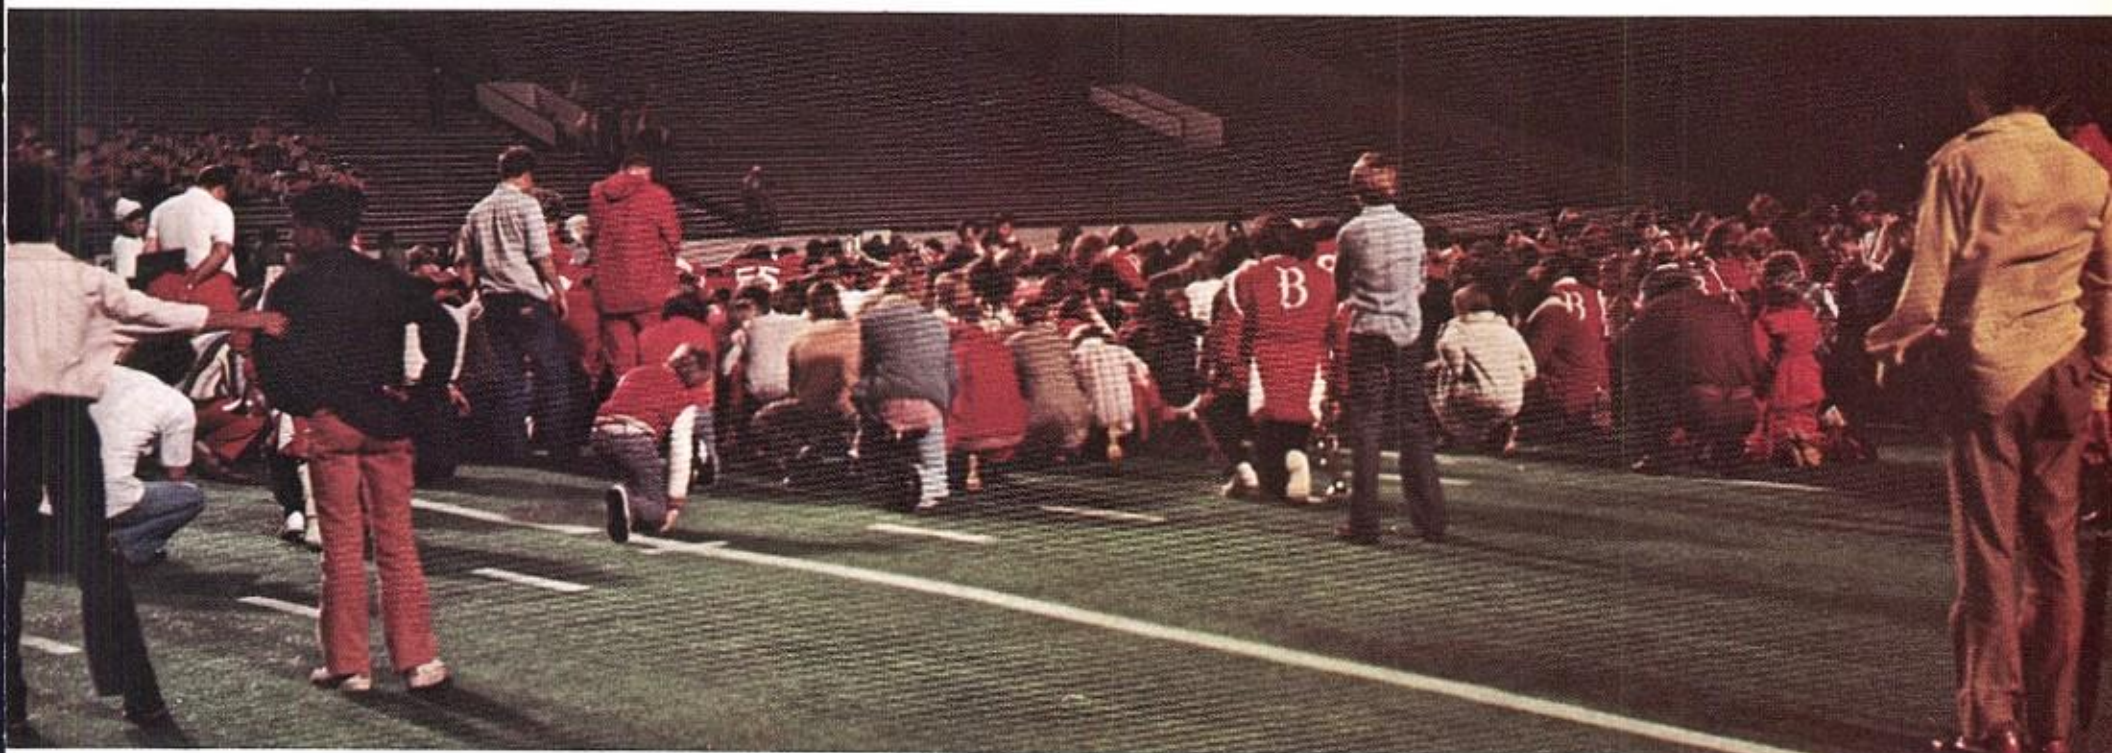

. . . A SILHOUETTE OF TRADITION

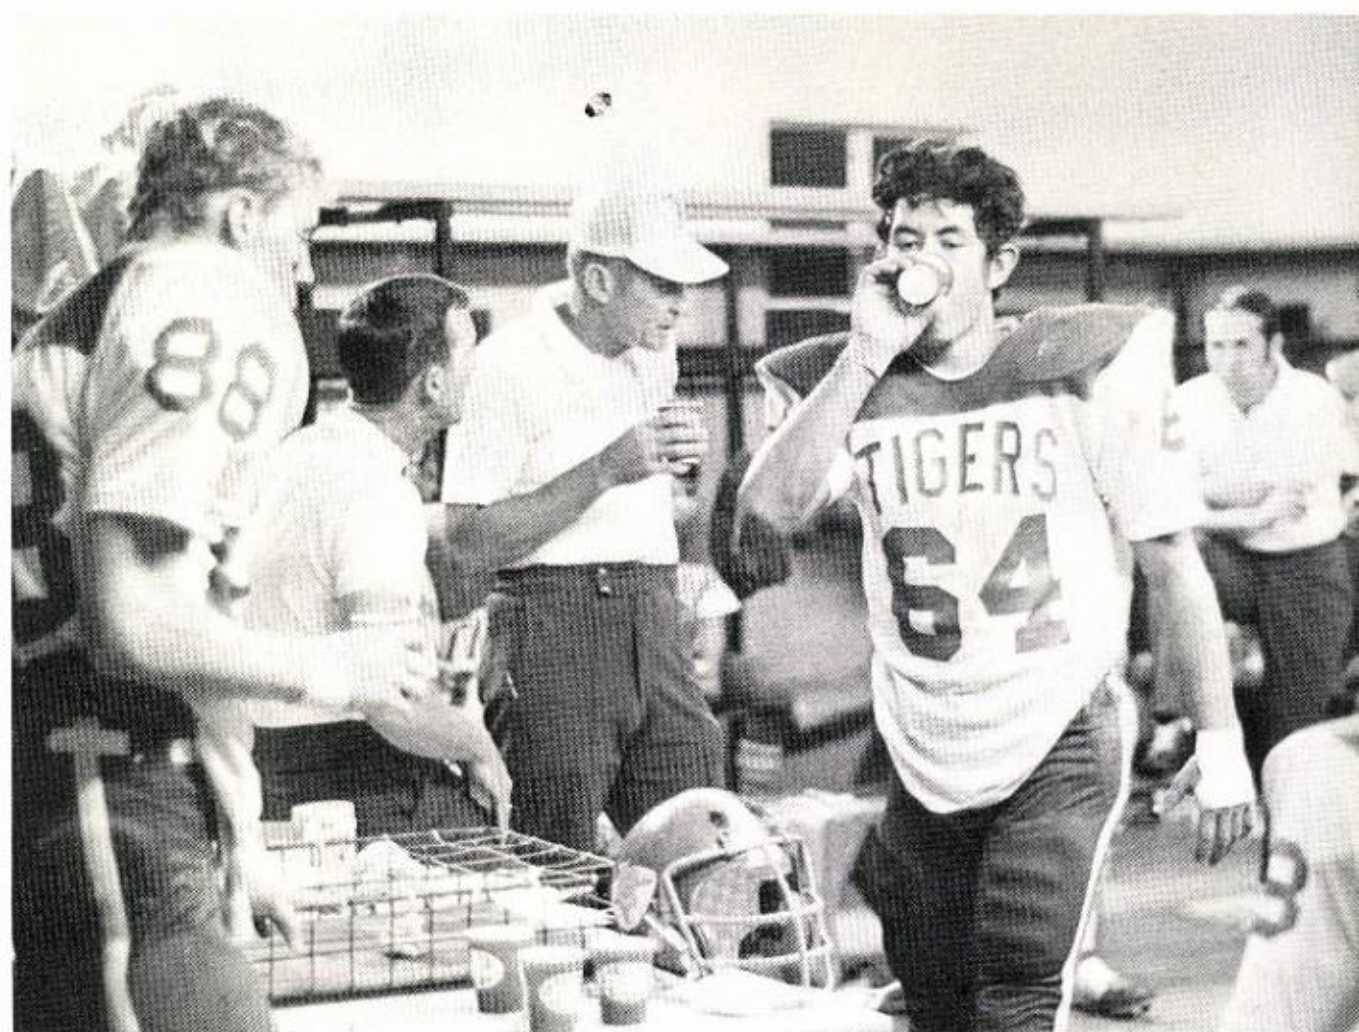

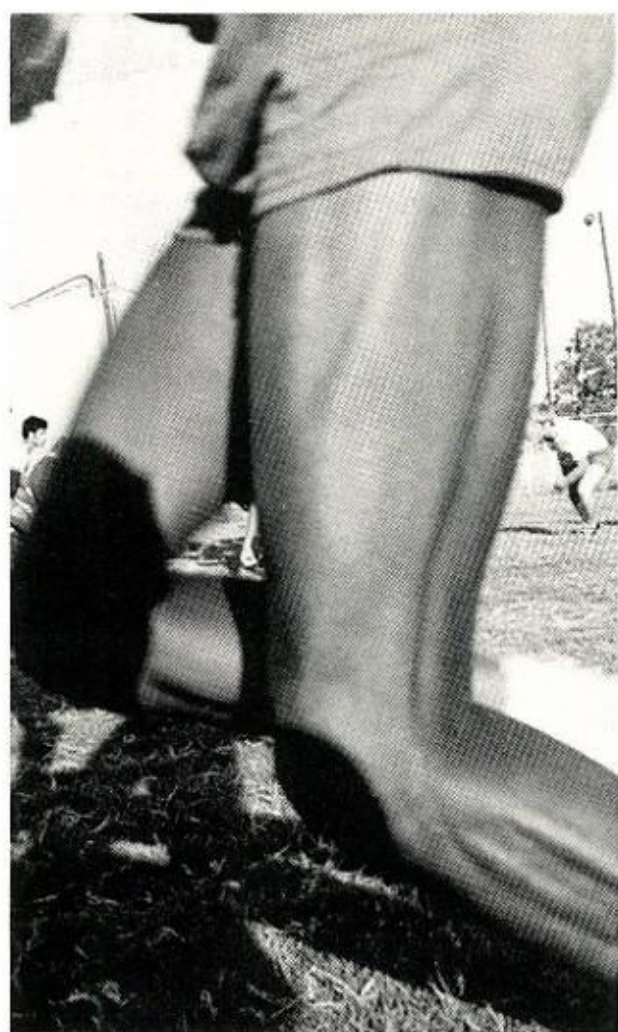

Nominees for Homecoming Queen were Teresa Albright, Cindy Bounds, Susan Kelton, (queen) Sena Ash, and Sean Burton.

The stack of wood piled up by the student body is slowly consumed by the fire.

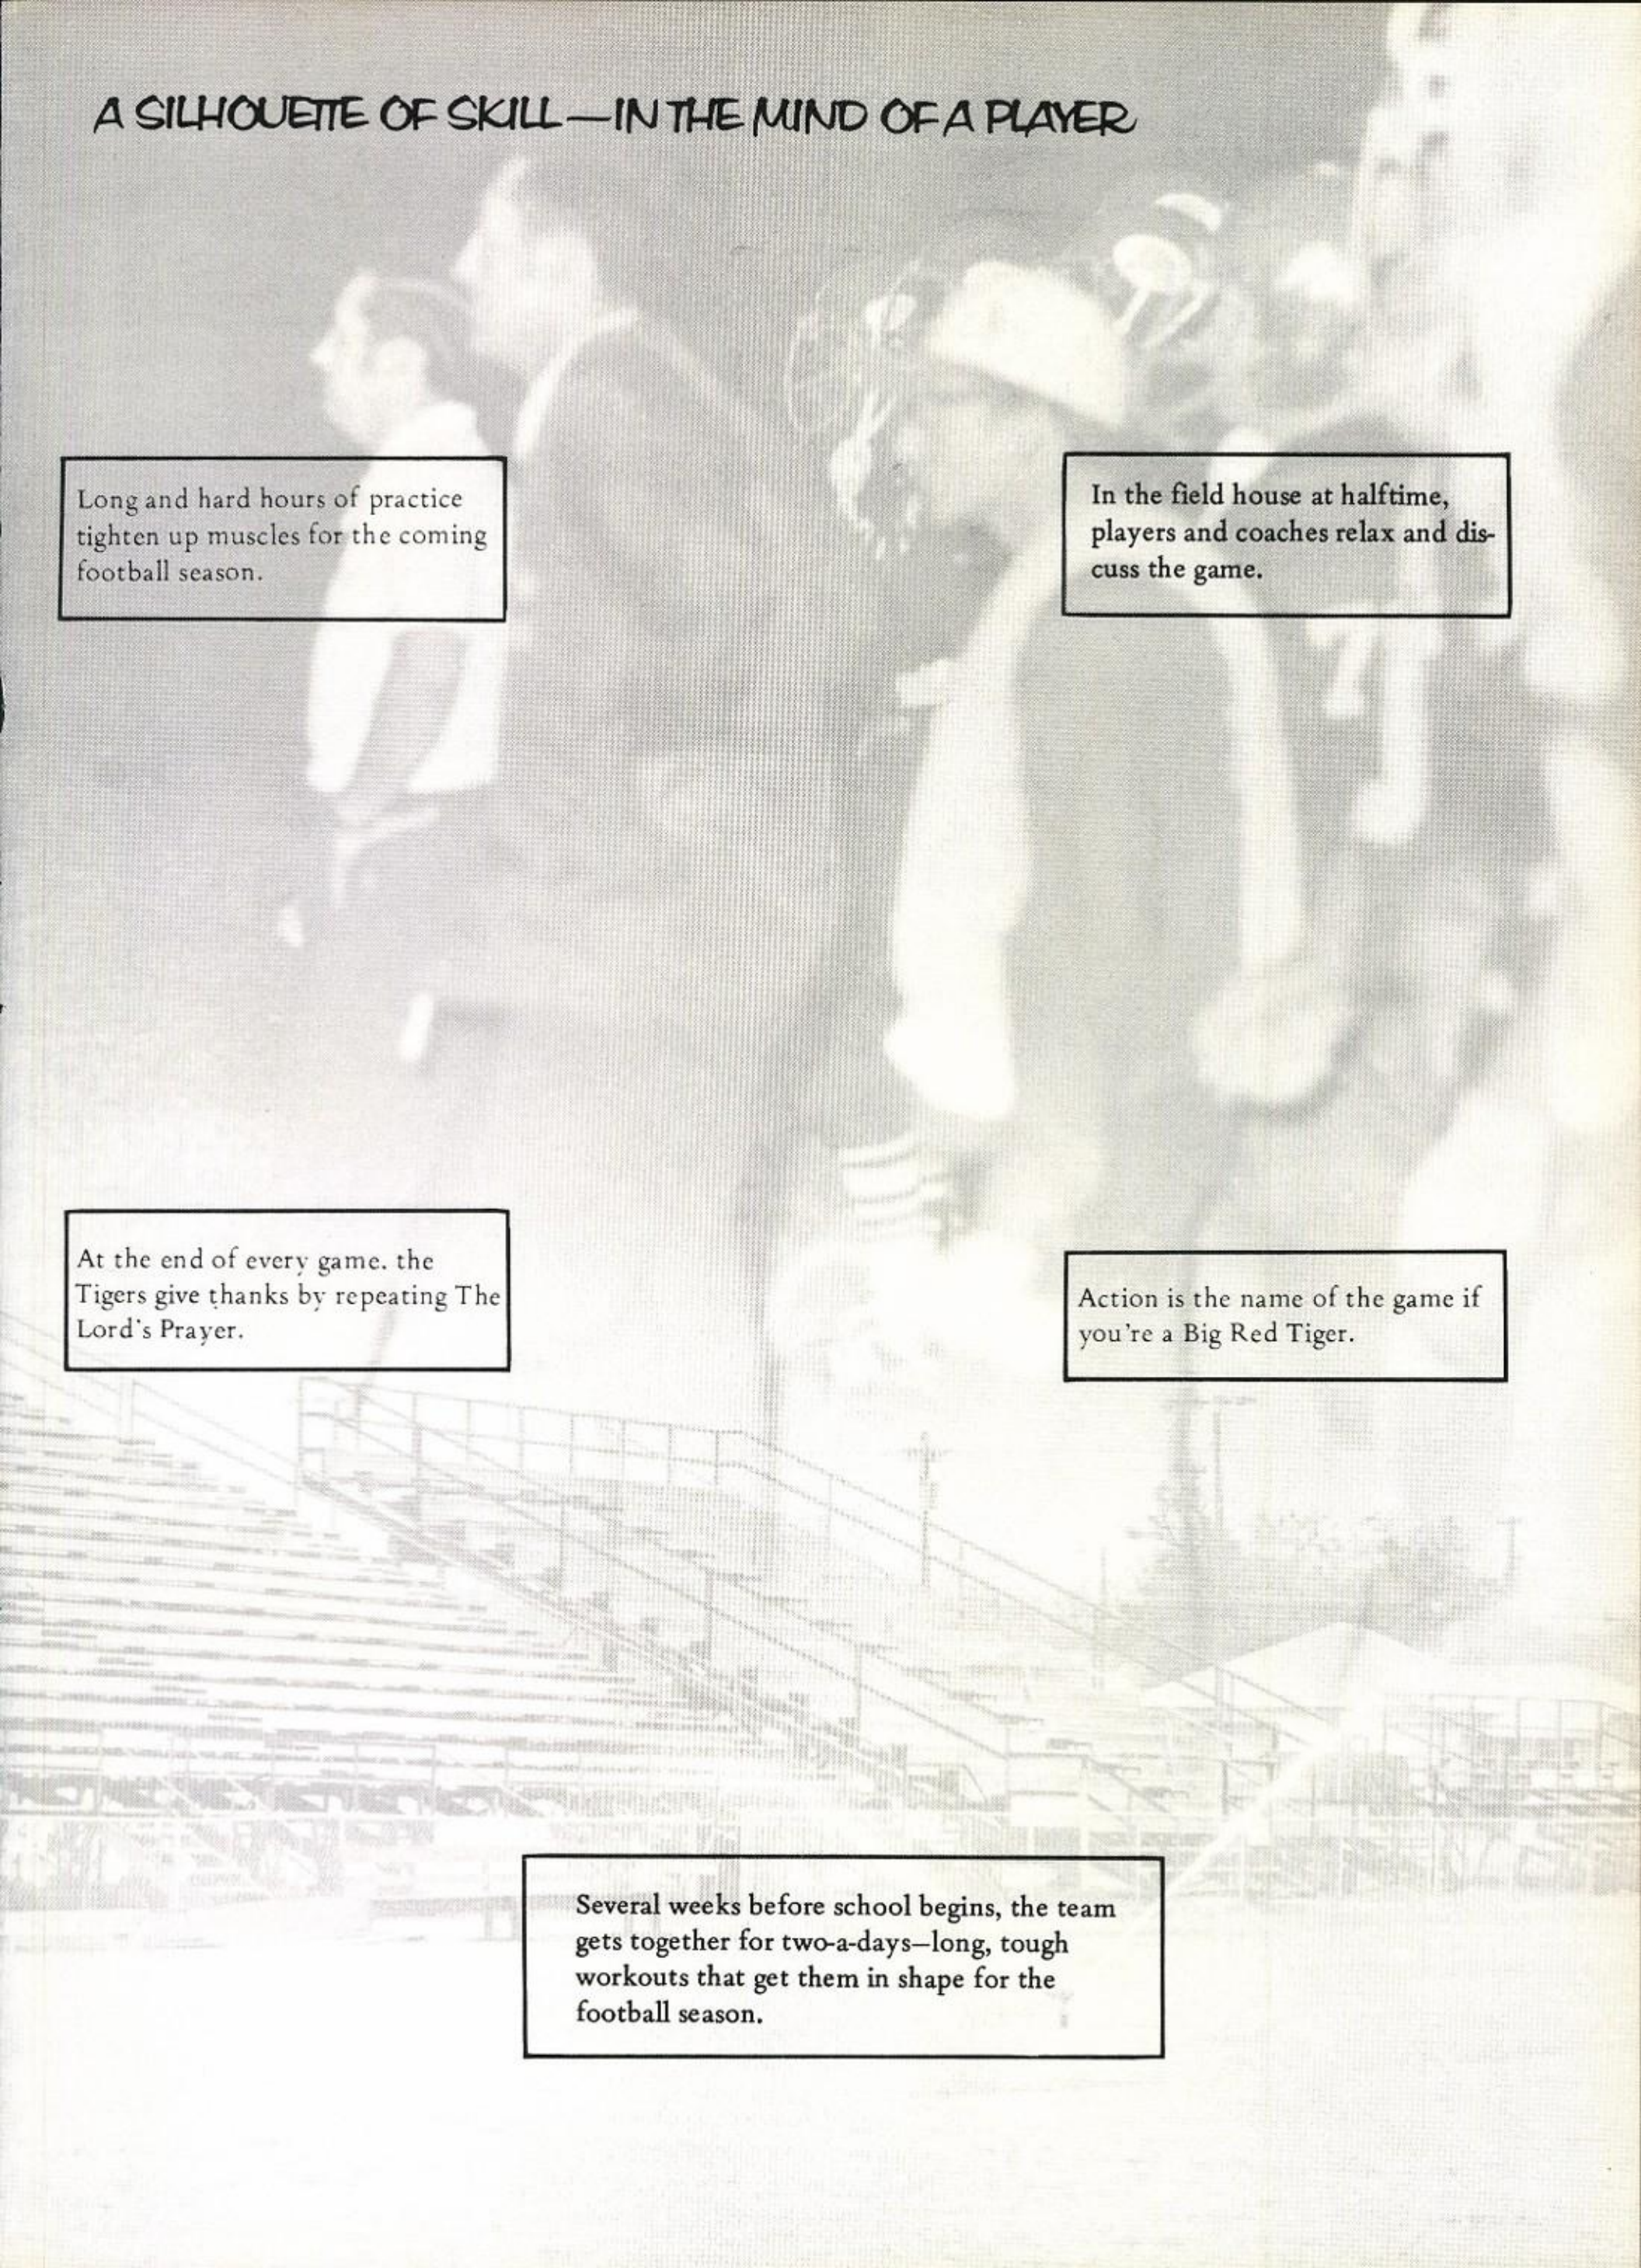

Belinda Carlisle, Kathy Meredith, and Laurie Stewart encourage supporters of Big Red in bringing out spirit at the bonfire.

After each game, students, parents, and fans join the Tigers on field and repeat "The Lord's Prayer."

A SILHOUETTE OF SKILL—IN THE MIND OF A PLAYER

Long and hard hours of practice tighten up muscles for the coming football season.

In the field house at halftime, players and coaches relax and discuss the game.

At the end of every game, the Tigers give thanks by repeating The Lord's Prayer.

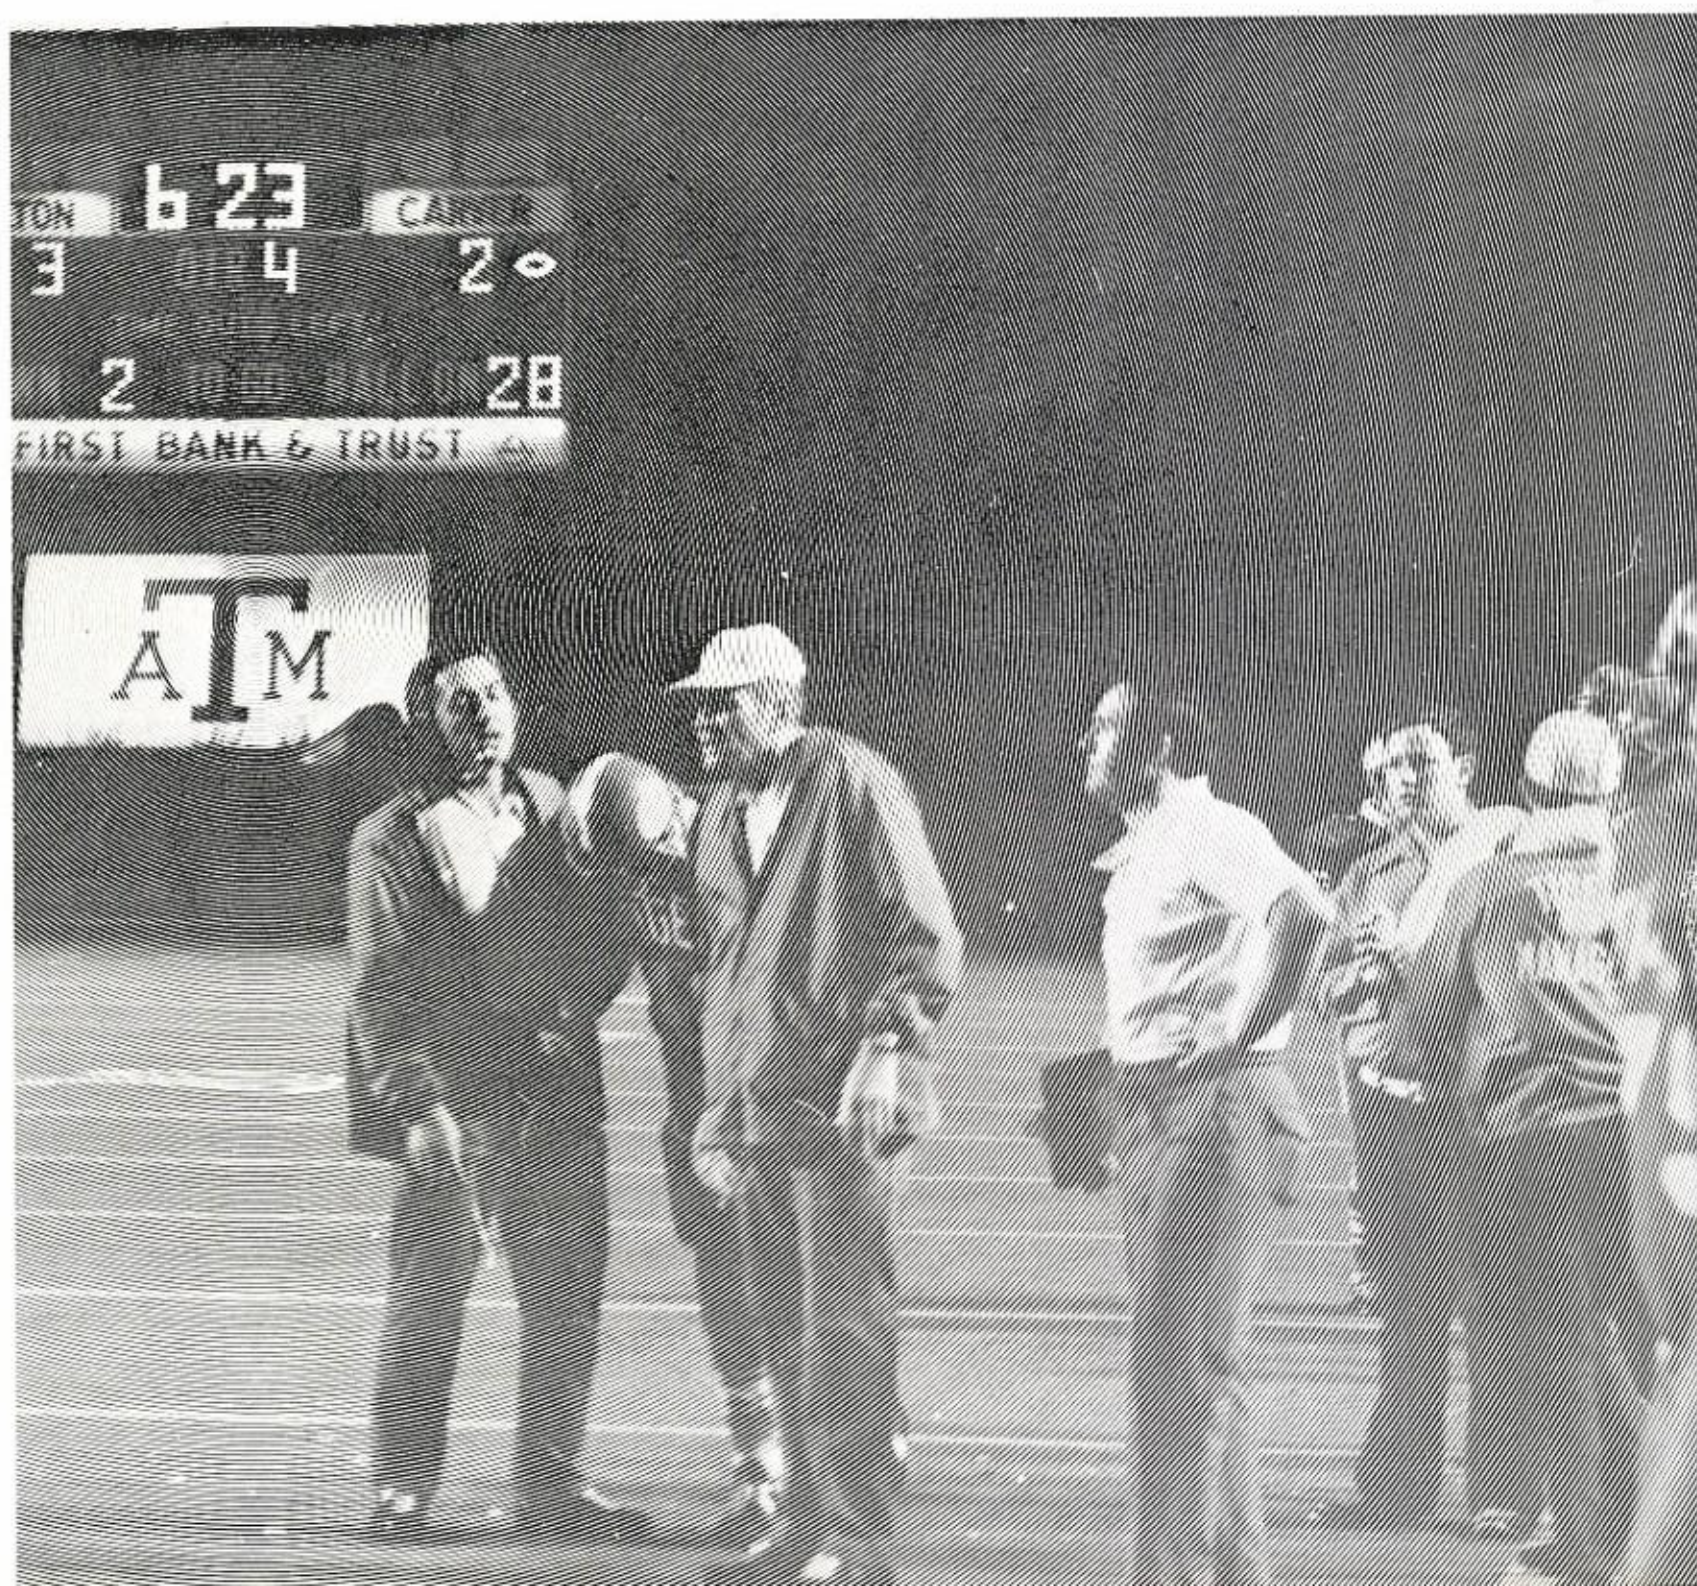

Action is the name of the game if you're a Big Red Tiger.

Several weeks before school begins, the team gets together for two-a-days—long, tough workouts that get them in shape for the football season.

TRADITION . . .

After each game, the band and cheerleaders take to the field for a traditional victory march.

Tradition didn't hold true for Aldine-Carver when Belton broke the hex of Kyle Field by beating the Panthers in Bi-District play-off.

A SILHOUETTE OF VALUES

A traditional senior function is a spring dance which is given each year by the parents.

Every year the Honor Society members are given a day to teach. Janet Kerley taught in Mrs. Reichert's American Government class and found it necessary to remove a disruptive "court" member.

This year's senior play was "Up the Down Staircase" which was presented in February.

ADJUSTMENT. . . A SILHOUETTE OF CHANGE

With the shortage of gasoline, it wasn't too unusual to see a car being pushed when the supply ran out.

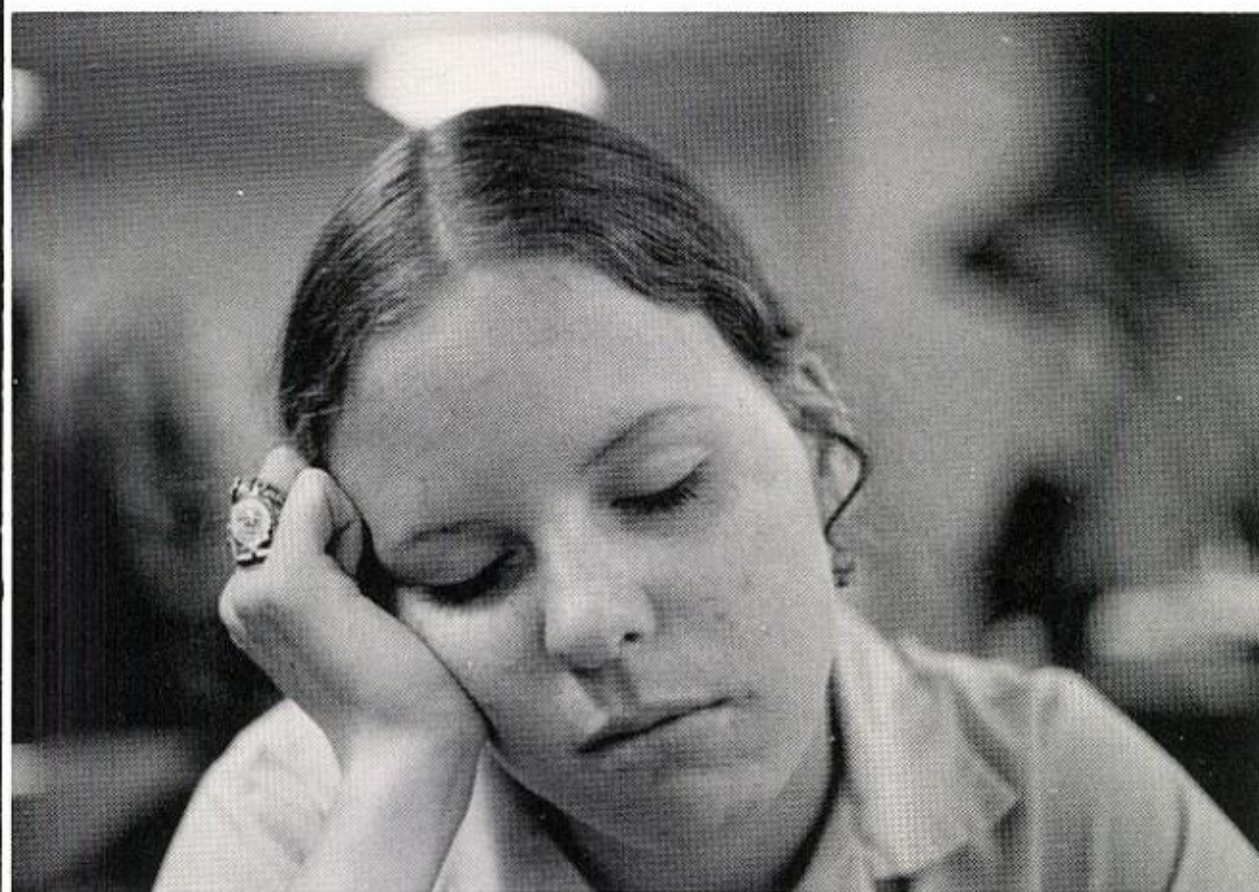

In an effort to save fuel, President Nixon asked that the speed limit be reduced to 50—in Texas it was 55.

Craig Hunter tries to thumb a ride from a pretty passing cyclist.

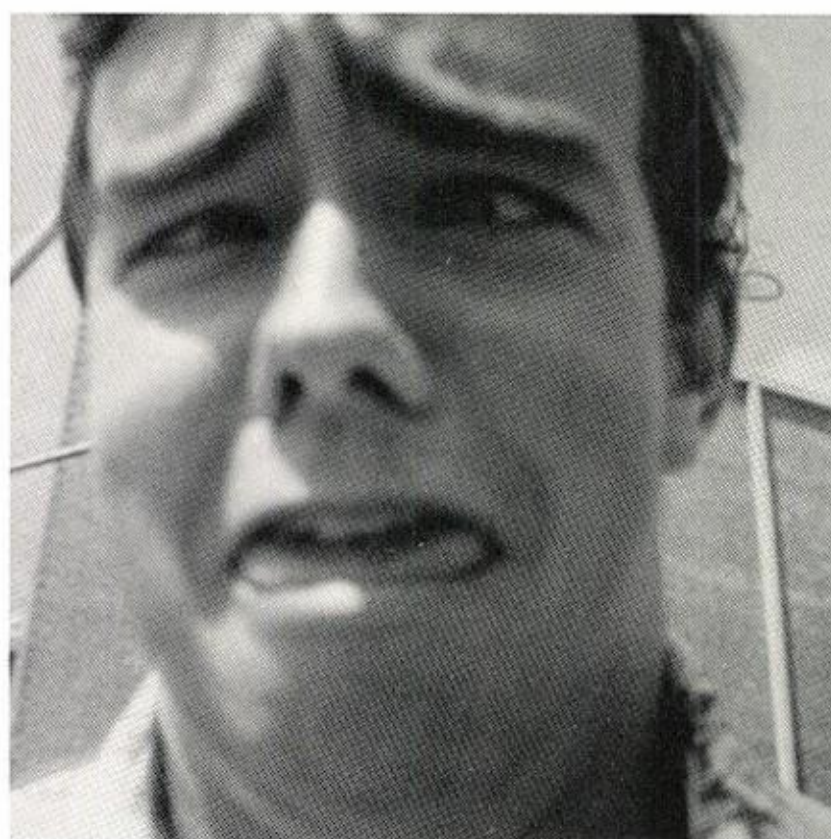

In accordance with the energy crisis, sports events were scheduled earlier in the day, car pools were encouraged among students and faculty. Daylight Savings Time went into effect all year around and to avoid students having to come to school in the dark, the school board set the entire school schedule ahead one half hour. Most students and teachers preferred the new schedule, but on April 1, the old schedule went back into effect.

EXPRESSION. . . A SILHOUETTE OF EMOTION

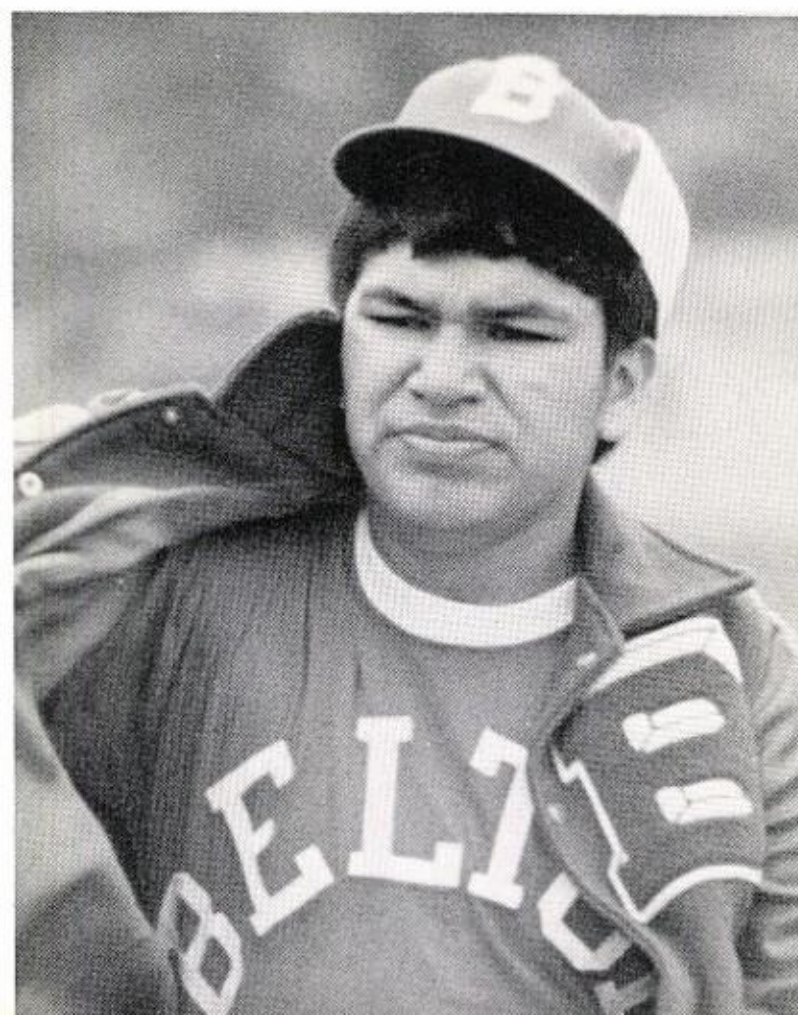

Expressions are the way people read each other's feelings—sadness, happiness, anxiety, uncertainty, concern, sympathy, and astonishment are but a few of the many emotions we all express from time to time.

Chery Oxley holds a look of detachment and unconcern as she rests wearily during the school day.

Mr. Johnson smiles with pleasure as he conducts the Freshman Band.

Bobby Wulf has a look of disgust or perhaps even horror on this face—one might think he has just seen THE EXORCIST.

A grim look of concern shows in Frankie Martinez's face as he watches a Big Red baseball game.

ACTIVITIES . . .

LeeAnn Kersey applies make-up to Grant Critchfield before the Senior play, "Up the Down Staircase."

Kyle Kelton and Carrie Dingus move together at the Sock Hop sponsored by the Student Government.

Gina Barnes, Brenda Benskin, and Richard Stone are seen in a performance of "Oklahoma!"

A SILHOUETTE OF INVOLVEMENT

Being involved means being active at work and play. Involvement in various school activities requires long hours of dedication and work whether it be at sports, band, choir, drill team, or club activities.

Miss Ford Country, Sandy Langston, entertained the school with a selection of songs and films of commercials.

Being a member of the band was a rewarding experience.

The "Tiger Dolls" performed a Jazz routine at their last performance.

Lisa Gullien was one of the many students who participated in various sports.

GRADUATION . . . A SILHOUETTE OF ACCOMPLISHMENT

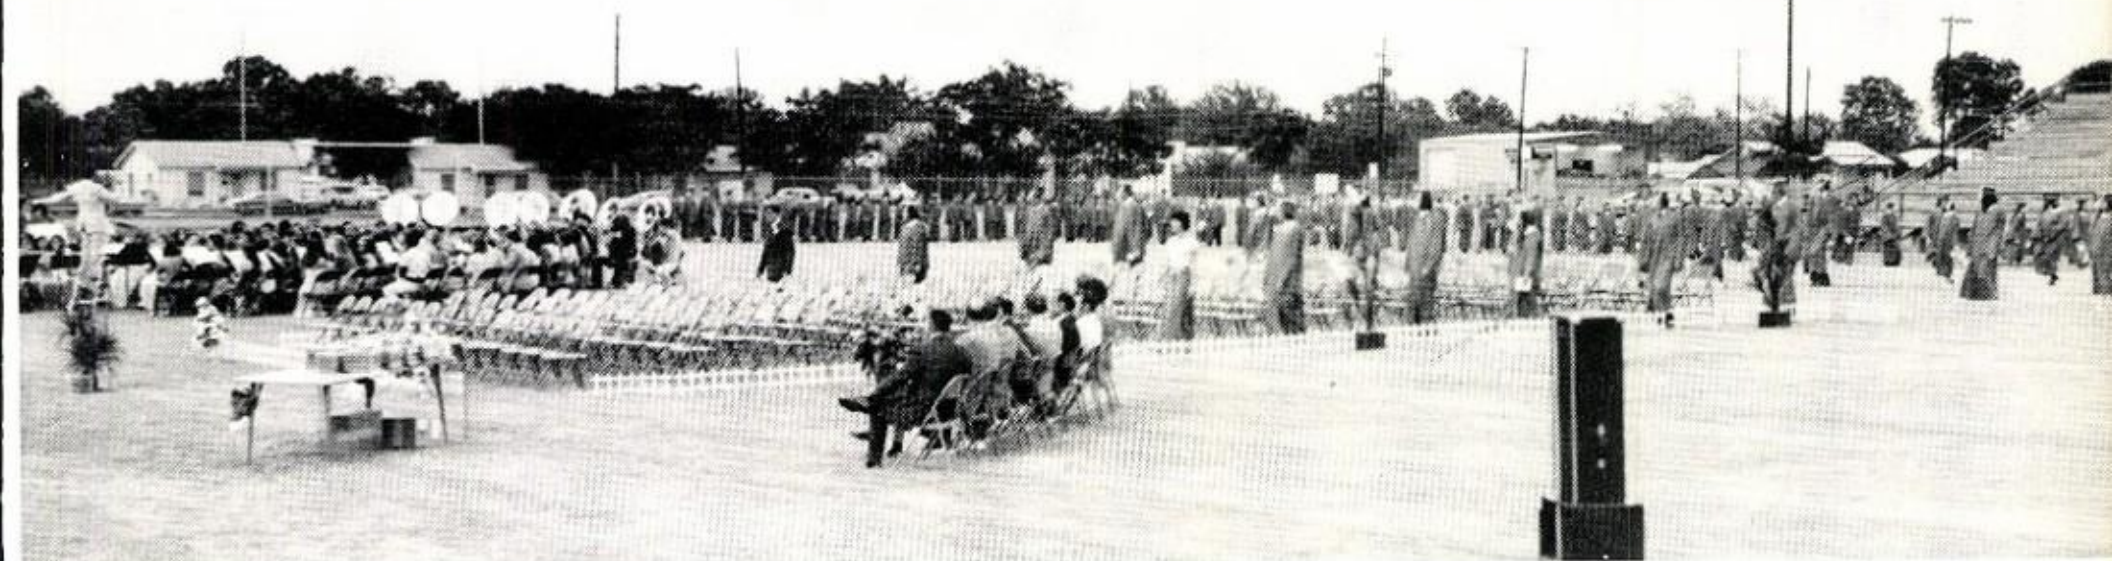

Nervousness overtakes seniors as they line up for commencement.

While waiting for time for Baccalaureate, students chat among themselves.

Baccalaureate was held the Sunday before graduation in the auditorium.

THOUGHTS OF A GRADUATE

Today . . .

I am graduating.

This marks the beginning of a new way of life for myself and those around me.

What will we do?

Who will succeed, who will not?

Will I?

Will the person in front of me, that boy who always bothered me, my best friend?

Friends . . .

I've shared twelve years with these people.

I remember . . .

A football game we lost and I cried and cried and It's over . . .

The good times, the bad, the accomplishments, the defeats.

I am now an adult, but I feel so young.

What will become of me

Tomorrow?

The graduating class was fortunate for the weather was good and commencement took place on the football field.

Seniors leave the field after receiving their diplomas.

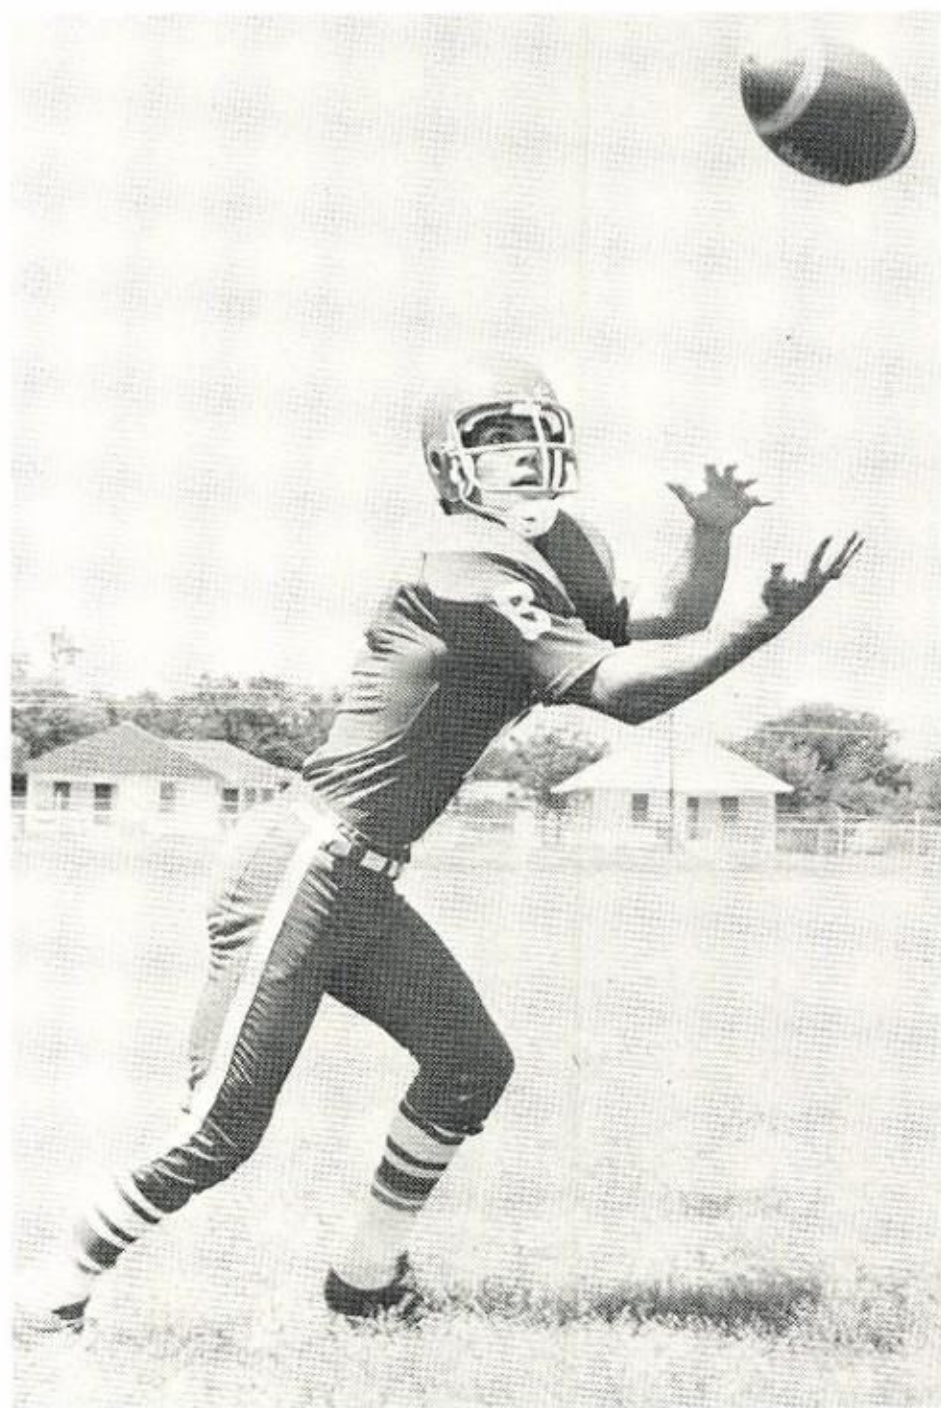

"SRS '74" was shouted as the class threw their mortar boards high into the air. The end of a long journey had come to an end and the joy was evident on the faces of each graduate.

'74 SENIOR REFLECTIONS

Motto: In the solitude of our minds we can look to the future for "we know what we are but not what we may be."

Shakespeare

Song: "We May Never Pass This Way Again"

Life—so they say is but a game and they let it slip away
Love—Like the autumn sun should be dying
but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead. They don't see just where we're goin' and all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go and take us up always up

We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again

Dreams—so they say are for the fools and they let them drift away
Peace—like the silent dove should be flyin'
but it's only just begun
Like Columbus in the olden days we must gather all our courage sail our ships out on the open sea cast away our fears and all the years will come and go And take us up always up

We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again

So I wanna laugh while the laughin' is easy
I wanna cry if it makes it worth while I may never pass this way again. That's why I want it with you 'Cause you make me feel like I'm more than a friend Like I'm the journey and your the journey's end. I may never pass this way again that's why I want it with you baby.

We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again.
